

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS BRIEFS.

New lot of clocks at H. W. Pobst's. Marshall Watts has returned from Richburg.

Fine assortment of studies at Pobst's.

Mr. Jos. Stras and son, Fred, were from Salem for a short visit.

The Radford Inn will be rebuilt one, this time of stone and brick.

A bear show on the street was promptly adjourned by the town regent.

The church fairs of last week, in the town hall, were fairly well patronized.

Judge S. C. Graham has been absent in Wytheville and elsewhere this week.

Tazewell was numerously represented at the United States court in Lynchburg.

Mr. Jno. W. Spotts has returned from Bristol and other points on the N. & W.

Moonshiner Pruett, he of the one eye, gets 15 months in one of Uncle Sam's prisons.

Mr. Charles H. Adams, of Alabama, takes editorial charge of the Highlands News.

A protracted meeting has been going on at the Christian church during the week.

Webb Hunt, the negro wanted for a murder at Pocahontas, was captured in Bristol.

First Monday in April will be the regular time for the annual election of town officers.

Mr. George Vanderbilt will build fifty $10,000 houses on his estate near Asheville, N. C.

If you want to know who keeps the freshest candies we can tell you. Why Pobst does.

The Annex to the University of Tennessee was burned at Knoxville to day before yesterday.

He who knows the whereabouts of J. R. Henry's umbrella, with name inside, will please report.

Rev. W. A. Simmons will return from Chattanooga, Tenn., Saturday, and preach in the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The news of the death of Capt. S. S. Duwiddie at Lebanon last week, was heard here, where he formerly lived, with great regret.

Messrs. A. B. Buchanan and T. A. Lynch were in Washington looking after their chances for the marshalling of this district of Virginia.

EVERY OTHER ONE.

One in every other family in the United States, indicates the number of California Kitchen Cabinets expected to be sold. This estimate is based on the rate of sales made since its introduction. The population of the country is about 65,000,000 people divided into about 13,000,000 families. Every other family buying one would make 6,500,000 cabinets sold. It would seem well nigh impossible to handle such a number when it is considered that they are not put on sale at stores as are stoves and sewing machines, the other two articles of household furniture of equal value with this, but are sold by house to house canvass.

Unlike stoves and sewing machines they do not wear out, but last a life time, so that a new demand arises only from the formation of new families or the repentance of those allowing to pass by the opportunity to purchase. Hence the number most satisfactory for its disposal, aside from its being an article protected by patent right.

Its carrying a patent, however, does not make it in anywise intricate. There is nothing about it that a child would not understand at once, if it had ever been inside a kitchen. Its appeal to every day wants and uses makes it sell in this unprecedented number of families.

Only a lack of means, so great that it cannot wait for reimbursement, limits its sale at all. Otherwise every household in the land would have it as a standard piece of furniture.

To those who can buy at all, its cost is so small as to be soon forgotten. More than its cost is soon lost without it. An appreciable difference in yearly grocery bills would soon make evidence of this.

It is the object of the proprietors of this valuable invention that all should have the privilege of seeing it. The agents take personal pleasure in its exhibit, not only to those who buy, but to any who take an interest in such things, enough to appreciate it.

In this time of uncertain and inefficient service a housekeeper must hold herself in readiness for independence when thrown upon her own resources. With her kitchen in apple pie order, the drudgery of the work is reduced to the minimum, and the work she must do off set by the total absence of annoyance of poor servants. Where this cabinet will then be a blessing she can easily see. It is just simply a great thing and that is the long and the short of it. Buy it and buy it without hesitation.

There was nothing half-hearted about that March weather of last week.

Col. A. J. May has been driving out since the favorable change of weather.

Miss Lucy Walker, of Staunton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. W. St. Clair.

This is the season when the young man's fancy turns to—W. G. Harrison & Co.

Dr. Painter was called to Philadelphia where his son, the young doctor, is very ill.

A trip to Hampton Roads, on the occasion of the Naval Rendezvous, in April, would well be worth the expense.

Mr. H. M. Smythe and family move this week to their cottage at Kelly after the winter at Hotel Graham.

Immediately after the sermon by Rev. Mr. Herndon at the Presbyterian church, Sunday morning, will be held a congregational meeting.

While court was in session at Clintwood some days ago a portion of the floor of the court house gave way and then followed a great stampede.

With the indications of spring, business begins to hold up its head along with vegetation, and the long period of comparative inactivity is gladly hailed.

Don't forget when you want a pair of spectacles or eyeglasses you can get them from the jeweler, Pobst, and he always takes pains to fit you in glasses.

Messrs. Chapman and Gillespie have sold to Messrs. Henry Freston and B. Baylor that desirable property opposite the residence of Mr. B. W. Stras and will build upon it.

The last monthly report of condition of The Clinch Valley Bank is published elsewhere, and is a reminder of the convenience to the public of an institution conducted upon the most careful business principles with safety and integrity.

In a spick and span new clothing house the filling of an order is only a matter of choice with the customer as to what he will have, not what he can find to make out with.

Messrs. W. G. Harrison & Co. have been liberal in their purchases and have a stock of clothing embracing the newest things in fabric and fashion. Their line of furnishing goods, too, is the very nicest and is admired for its novelty as well as honest quality. There is a first class house without question.

For the first time in the history of the Clinch Valley there will be held, in the Methodist church at this place, Easter services by Clinch Valley Commandery of Knights Templar according to their beautiful ritual. The Knights will go to church in full uniform and the Rev. B. W. S. Bishop will preach the sermon. We learn the music will be first class as a choir of the best voices in town are practicing every afternoon at 4 o'clock and those present will see and hear something mighty nice.

The Virginia delegation in Congress held a caucus on the 22d, all of the members being present. After a discussion of three hours they came to the conclusion not to indorse any applications at this time, but to present to President Cleveland the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"We desire to act in harmony and union and wish to ascertain what are your wishes as to the mode of presenting or indorsing the names of applicants for marshalls, district attorneys and internal revenue collectorships."

The meeting then adjourned to meet on the 31st day of March, by which time they expect to ascertain the President's views on the matter.

NOT EVERYONE CAN HAVE THE CHANCE

To visit Washington; but that is no valid reason why everybody may not become thoroughly familiar with the points of interest at our National Capital, and with many things about it that only a favored few could enjoy even by a sojourn there. For example, the Foreign Legations; how many out of every hundred who visit Washington know anything about them? Yet you may sit quietly at home, without incurring the fatigue and expense of the journey, and see them all—all the magnificent rooms and portraits of their occupants—in Demorest's Family Magazine, the April number of which contains a charming paper, superbly illustrated, on "The Foreign Legations at Washington." If you admire handsome women, you will find portraits of over a score of "Society Leaders of Illinois," which form a charming gallery. The paper on "The Hawaiian Islands" is timely, and is uniquely illustrated with portraits of all the kings and queens who have reigned over that island realm; "A Debutante's Winter in New York" contains much information regarding the etiquette of marriage engagements; "En Route for Chicago" gives excellent information for women who purpose traveling alone to the Chicago Exposition; there are numerous excellent stories; all the departments are full

RICHMOND, March 22.

Wish we could open-paint the dress goods' newness for you; but even if the number didn't prevent, the beauties would elude us. We'll send you samples, though. Here are a few hints:

Take Plusbelle, the silkiest of looks with the charming softness of wool a liberal half of it is silk. Pretty colorings. 38 in., $1.374. Also in black, white and cream.

Illuminated English checks show what beauty is gettable from pure wool alone. 40 in., $1.20.

All wool Plisse, a French stuff of much beauty. 43 in., $1. It is of a grade easily worth $1.33.

Europe's Bengelines in all the spring shades. 40 to 46 in., $3c. to $1.20.

A piled up beauty in several colorings—French Bengeline Rept. 40 in., $3c. The plaid weavers seem to think anything that's pretty one way will be as pretty again if run both ways. So we have plaids in everything and of everything—and they are wonderfully pretty. 50c. to $2.95 a yard.

Half wool plaids, quite an assortment of good effects. 36 in., 24c.

Wonderful color combinations. Silk and wool. Glints of brightness; stripes and streaks of beauty; maybe only a few dots. Entirely indescribable. In dress lengths, no two alike, $4.50 to $19.

RHEUMATISM QUICKLY CURED.

Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted; as will be seen by the following from James Langert, of New Brunswick, Ills: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right today; and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by A. F. Hargrave, Druggist.

DESERVING PRAISE.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. A. F. Hargrave, druggist.

THE MOTHERS RECOMMEND IT

The strongest recommendation that any article can have is the endorsement of the mothers of the town. When the mothers recommend it you may know that that article has more than ordinary worth. Here is what the Centerville, South Dakota, Citizen says editorially of an article sold in their town: "From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children. We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day." 50 cent bottles for sale by A. F. Hargrave, Druggist.
